3. SPECIAL PROVISION FOR CLASS I

- a. Scholarship Pool (Categories A, B, & C)
- b. Non Scholarship Pool (Full Fee Category D & SSF)

Refer to the the School's Fee Policy at www.umeed.org.in

3.1 Class I shall be the entry-level admission class for the Academic Session 2027–28. There shall be 30 seats available for admission to Class I.

3.2 Class I seats shall be allocated as follows:

Selection Pool	Allocation	Seats
Scholarship Pool Category A+B+C	50%	5+5+5
Non-Scholarship Full Fee Category D	45%	13
Non-Scholarship SSF Category	5%	2
Total	100%	30

3.3 The above allocations shall constitute separate selection pools. An applicant shall be considered in only one selection pool, based on the category declared in the application and subsequently verified by the School.

3.4 The applicable Scholarship Category shall be determined by the School on the basis of the information and documents submitted by the parent/guardian and in accordance with the School's approved Scholarship/Fees Policy.

3.5 The category declared in the application shall not ordinarily be changed after the closing date of applications. Correction may be permitted only in the case of an evident clerical or documentary error identified before the Final Category-wise Eligible List is frozen.

3.6 After the closing date of applications, all applications shall be scrutinised for age, eligibility, completeness and prescribed documents. The School may seek clarification or additional documents where considered necessary.

3.7 Only applications found complete and eligible shall be included in the Final Category-wise Eligible List.

3.8 The Final Category-wise Eligible List shall be frozen before commencement of the selection process. Each eligible applicant shall be identified by a unique Application ID.

3.9 No written entrance examination or academic assessment shall be conducted for applicants in the Scholarship Pool (Categories A, B, & C) for the purpose of screening applicants for Class I.

3.10 Where the number of eligible applicants in any Scholarship Pool (Categories A, B, & C) exceeds the number of seats available in that pool, selection shall be made through a separate lottery for that selection pool.

3.11 The lottery shall be conducted only from the relevant Final Category-wise Eligible List and shall be based on Application IDs.

3.12 Where there are 1000 or fewer eligible applicants in a selection pool, the lottery may be conducted manually in the presence of designated School officials and witnesses.

Where the number of eligible applicants in a selection pool is more than 1000, the lottery shall be conducted through a computerised random-selection system.

3.13 The computerised lottery shall generate the random order without manual intervention. The School shall preserve an appropriate record of the selection output.

3.14 A separate Selected List and Waiting List shall be prepared for each selection pool.

Where a lottery is conducted, the Waiting List shall follow the order in which applicants are drawn after the available seats have been filled.

3.15 Where the number of eligible applicants in a selection pool is equal to or less than the number of seats available in that pool, all such eligible applicants shall be considered for admission, subject to document verification and completion of the prescribed admission formalities.

3.16 If a selected applicant:

- A. fails to complete the admission formalities within the prescribed period; or
- B. is found ineligible or unable to establish the information submitted in the application during document verification, the seat shall be offered to the next eligible applicant in the Waiting List of the same selection pool.

3.17 An unfilled seat in one selection pool shall not automatically be transferred to another selection pool. Any reallocation of an unfilled seat shall be made only in accordance with the School's approved admission policy and applicable statutory or regulatory requirements.

3.18 Selected applicants shall be called for verification of original documents and completion of admission formalities. Selection through the lottery shall not, by itself, constitute confirmation of admission.

3.19 Any false, fabricated, misleading or materially incorrect information furnished in the application or supporting documents may result in cancellation of the application or admission, as applicable.
